Cinnamon star cookies with Nutella ${ }^{\circledR}$ hazelnut spread

INGREDIENTS

for 24 cookies

2 egg whites

$17 / 3$ cups confectioners' sugar, divided
2 2/3 cups ground hazelnuts
$11 / 2$ tsp ground cinnamon
$1 / 2$ cup Nutella ${ }^{\circledR}$ hazelnut spread
1 tsp of lemon juice

METHOD

Preheat oven to $250^{\circ}$ F; position rack in center of oven.

Using a mixer, beat together the egg whites and $11 / 4$ cups confectioners' sugar for 4 to 5 minutes or until soft peaks form.

Reserve 2 tbsp into a small bowl for the icing used later - combine only this portion with 1 tsp of lemon juice

Gently mix hazelnuts and cinnamon into remaining egg white mixture until combined.

On work surface, roll out dough between 2 sheets of parchment paper to $1 / 8$ inch thickness. Using a 2 inch star cookie cutter, cut out 48 cookies, re-rolling scraps once.

Arrange cookies on 2 parchment paper-lined baking sheets. Using $1 / 2$ inch round cookie cutter, cut out rounds in the center of half of the cookies (these will be tops of sandwich cookies).

Spread "icing"-like mixture on the top of the cookie (with the cut out) using a teaspoon.

Bake, in 2 batches, for about 10 minutes or until cookies are set. Let cool completely. Spoon Nutella ${ }^{\circledR}$ hazelnut spread into piping bag fitted with small round tip. Pipe 1 tsp Nutella ${ }^{\circledR}$ hazelnut spread onto half of the cookies (without round cut outs).

Dust remaining cookies with remaining confectioners' sugar; place over Nutella ${ }^{\circledR}$ hazelnut spread on bottom halves of cookies.

Tips:

Substitute pumpkin pie spice or gingerbread spice for cinnamon, if desired.

If desired, bake cookies in advance; fill with Nutella ${ }^{\circledR}$ hazelnut spread just before serving.
